uccessful commencement exercises of Salem Female College. Class reunions were held at 9 o'clock, and an hour later the Alumnae Association met in annual the Alumnae Associated when made by the officers and letters of greeting read from many members who could not be present. The treasurer's report showed a fund of $2.00 for the education of poor daughters to the country of the count Coroner Taylor was called to view the remains of Laura Thomas, a colored wo-dilars was added to this amount to-day. One of the pleasing features of the meeting was the formal presentation of the beautiful "1805-class memorial organ," which cost $1,000. The alumnae banquet this afternoon was another interesting and inspiring feature of the meeting. Several addresses were made. Principal Clewell made a talk in which he discussed the advisability of a "centennial memorial" for 1902, when the college

The Republicans Deny It.

The Republicans Deny If.

RALEIGH, N. C., May 27.—(Special.)—
There is a rumor here that Russell has written to Senator Pritchard expressing his entire willingness to have his name taken from the head of the State ticket, if it is thought best, Local Republicans deny this positively and say they never knew Russell to back down. The rumor is due to news which comes from Washis due to news which comes from Wash-ington, it is said, through Senator Butler and Congressman Skinner.

SHRINERS' TENTH ANNIVERSARY. Splendid Celebration by Acca Tem ple To-Morrow Night. The nobles of Acca Temple, Mystic

Shrine, will celebrate the tenth anniversary of their temple to-morrow night The observance will commence at 7:39 o'clock with a grand street parade, headed o'clock with a grand street parade, headed by the Blues' Band. The line of march will be from the Masonic Temple up Broad to Monroe, to Main street, to the Jefferson, where the local Shriners will take charge of about 169 nobles of Almos Temple, of Washington. These bodies will then march down Franklin street, to Fifth, to Grace, to Ninth, up Ninth to Broad, and thence up Broad to the Temple again. Temple again.

Temple again.

About thirty candidates will be on hand to cross the burning sands. After they have successfully crossed a grand bunquet will be given in the Grand-Lodge room. An excellent programme has been arranged, and there will be some good speaking, and much splendid music—solor, duets, and quartetten—will be rendered by the best of Richmond's singers.

Sill Testing Car-Fenders

The sub-committee of the Comm Council on streets, to select a fender the street-cars of the city, held a meeting last evening and tested several samples submitted for examination. The most satisfactory fender tried was one manufactured by the Crawford & Bell Company, of Roanoke, which consists of a wire network, and which easily picks up anything from the tracks. It worked exceedingly well.

Mr. Evan R. Snead, Jr., had on exhibition a model of a fender, the object of which is to push object from the tracks. The sub-committee decided not to make any recommendation until a sample could the street-cars of the city, held a me

Funeral of Dr. Robert Leeky.

The funeral of Dr. Robert Lecky, took place from the Second Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon at 5:39 o'clock, Rev. Dr. Moses D. Hoge conducted the solemn service. The interment was at Hollywood Cemetery, and the following gentlemen acted as pall-bearers: Honorary—John H. Worsham, Sylvanus Gresham, Joseph Anthony, and William Active-S. H. Hawes, Dr. J. Ed. Moyle

W. C. Smith, R. Edgar Shine, Thomas L. Alfriend, E. B. Thomason, John B. New-ell, and Thomas Jenkins. The Moonlight Saturday Night.

Owing to the inclement weather the mosnlight excursion, which was to have been given on last Tuesday night for the benefit of the Broad-Street church Epworth League, has been postponed until next Saturday night. Having this excur-sion on a Saturday evening is an oppor-tunity not often offered, and there will doubtless be a large crowd to take advantage of this chance. There will be ample time to reach the steamer after the ball game, as the Pocahontas will not leave until to o'clock.

The Three Friends Still Afont.

KEY WEST, FLA, May 27.—The report that the Three Friends, which is bound from Jacksonville to Cuba on a fillbustering expedition, had been sunk in an attempt to escape from the revenue enter Winona is without foundation. The Winona returned to this port at 1:20 check today, and reports going as for Winona returned to this port at 120 o'clock to-day, and reports going as far as Knight's Keys, and that the Three Friends was not seen by her. The vessel that went ashore near Matacumbie Key was the Mexican tug Asturius. The wrecking of this tug was reported in these dispatches yesterday. This dispatch was evidently the basis for the report about the Three Friends.

The Dry-Goods Market.

NEW YORK, May 27.—In the dry-goods market there has been a considerable influx of visiting buyers, but the majority of them have been attracted by the large auction sale of piece silks, and the general market has benefited but little from ral market has benefited but little from their presence. Spot trade has again ruled quiet, throughout. The most important feature has been in the print division, where new prices have been made on American indigo-bine prints, reduced to 4 cents, and on American black and gray prints, reduced to 41-2. This is the lowest price these prints have ever sold at. MARINE INTELLIGENCE.
